Parks and facilities from the City of Rancho Cucamonga

The City of Rancho Cucamonga wants you to have room to celebrate life. This is why Rancho Cucamonga boasts 24 parks with a multitude of amenities for community use. Residents or local groups may rent many of these inviting areas and facilities of the parks that are attractive and well maintained by calling the City of Rancho Cucamonga.

You'll find 17 facilities in four locations suitable for meetings, banquets, entertainment, parties and other celebrations. These facilities are equipped with a variety . . . Bottom Portion of that Panel.

Coming Winter 2004!

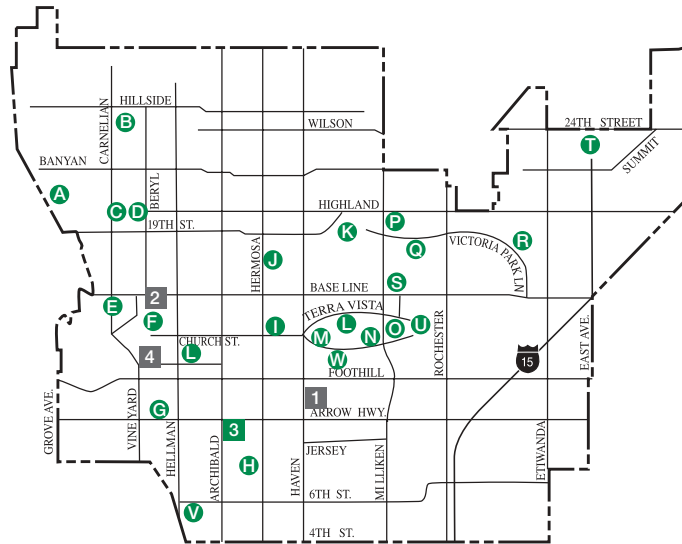

Think back to your childhood to your favorite local park – the games you played and the friends you met and made memories with. Central Park will soon be that place for Rancho Cucamonga families.

Central Park – the place where memories are created.

Situated on the northwest corner of Base Line and Milliken, Central Park will be approximately 20 acres of open space parkland and will be the home of a brand new Senior and Community Center that is approximately 51,000 square feet.
